(c) Yes, Sir.

(d) and (e) In the continuing process of bilateral consultations, including the 4th meeting of the Joint Economic Commission held in December, 1993 and the second meeting of the Joint Business Council held in August, 1994, both countries have identified several areas to expand their trade relations. India has allowed concessional import of Jamdani sarees, Hilsha fish and jute carpets from Bangladesh. Preferential tariff has also been granted for certain other items of import from Bangladesh. It is further agreed to promote joint ventures aimed at expanding bilateral trade particularly Bangladesh's exports to India. Direct business level contracts are being encouraged. The validity of a Govt. credit line extended to Bangladesh has been extended. Both countries support the SAARC Preferential Trading Arrangements (SAPTA) aimed at promotion of trade among countries of the region.
